This is a prayer written by Jon B. Walters, Church of the New Covenant, United Methodist Church in Kenai.

This is the day that You have made, O God, and we rejoice in it.

We come to this chamber today with many ideas and concerns. We ask that direction and guidance be provided so that we will seek to learn from each other, discuss with each other and work with each other for the best interest of Your people and our beloved state.

Help us to remember that we serve a higher purpose than to make headlines for our own self-satisfaction. Help us to remember that we are servants of a great cause which calls us to our own highest levels of ethical behavior, common courtesy and public etiquette.

We seek to work together to bring about a better life and a better day for our people, given the great abundance of resources You have so generously provided.

We give You thanks for great natural resources, for great people resources and for great spiritual resources.

Help us to use each gift wisely and to the best of our abilities as You have given us this opportunity to be the leaders of a great people, the State of Alaska. Amen.

Senator French led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.
