Twenty-fifth Day

With the deepest respect for the religious beliefs of all Alaskans, I offer these words:

All too often, people give credit to good and evil as though they are only exterior forces. However you choose to conduct yourself spiritually, do not overlook the divine and sinful qualities that we all possess. People themselves are capable of immoral deeds as well as what some would consider to be miracles. However you choose to associate with these positive and negative forces, do not overlook our interaction and participation in these events. May we all be conscious and cautious of how we conduct ourselves so as to best affect our surroundings and communities here in Alaska. Thank You.

Senator French led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.
