The conference of over 1,800 delegates was a huge success with the assistance of our Host Committee and Legislative and Executive Branch volunteers. Our state appropriation was repaid by cash and in kind contributions by the private sector.

Discussion followed.

6. CONTRACT FOR THE PUBLICATIONS OF THE ALASKA STATUTES

Pam Finley, Reviser of Statues affirmed that the Legislative Affairs Agency has a contract with Lexis-Nexis to publish the Alaska Statutes in print and on CD-ROM. The initial contract period expires at the end of 2006, but the Agency has the option of renewing the contract for a two-year period. The contract requires the Agency to notify the publisher by July 1, 2006 whether it intends to renew or not. Pam recommended that Legislative Council make this decision now, so that if Council decides not to renew, the Agency could begin the RFP process this fall. If Council decides now to renew the contract for two years, it could avoid having to address this issue during what promises to be a busy session.

Senator Cowdery moved that Legislative Council approve the two-year extension with Lexis-Nexis.

YEAS: Kott, Gatto, Rokeberg, Berkowitz, Cowdery, Gary Stevens, Wagoner, and Davis.

NAYS: None

ABSENT: Coghill, Harris, Weyhrauch, Ben Stevens, Therriault, and Wilken
