EXPLANATION:

This line item funds Assisted Living (general relief) services for residents 18 years or older who are disabled, impaired or have significant deficits in self care; who, without assisted living care are subject to, or at risk of, abuse neglect or exploitation by others. Services are available to those who are low income and have applied for financial assistance from other agencies, organization or programs as required by 2 AAC42.235 and who have exhausted the use of alternative financial assistance as required by 2 AAC42.240(a). Those eligible for the program are not only seniors; however, the majority of the recipients are seniors/elderly.
