A BILL

FOR AN ACT ENTITLED

1 "An Act relating to infants who are safely surrendered by a parent shortly after birth."

2 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

3 * Section 1. The uncodified law of the State of Alaska is amended by adding a new section
4 to read:

5 SHORT TITLE. This Act may be known as the Safe Haven for Infants Act.

6 * Sec. 2. AS 11.81 is amended by adding a new section to read:

7 Article 4A. Prohibition on Prosecution.

8 Sec. 11.81.500. No prosecution for safe surrender of infant. A parent may 9 not be criminally prosecuted for surrendering a child of the parent if the child

10 (1) is an infant who is less than 21 days of age;

11 (2) is surrendered in the manner described in AS 47.10.013(c); and 12 (3) is not the subject of a court order affecting custody of the child.

13 * Sec. 3. AS 47.10.013 is amended by adding new subsections to read:

14 (c) A parent who is immune from prosecution under AS 11.81.500 and

15 chooses to surrender an infant shall surrender the infant in the manner described in this

1 subsection. Surrendering the infant in the manner described in this subsection
2 constitutes abandonment for purposes of this chapter. An infant's parent is considered
3 to have abandoned the infant safely, and, notwithstanding AS 25.20.030 and 4 AS 47.10.120, the parent's legal duty to support the infant is extinguished if

5 (1) the parent, without expressing an intent to return for the infant,
6 leaves the infant in the physical custody of a person who the parent reasonably
7 believes is a peace officer, member of the clergy, community health aide, a physician
8 or hospital employee in a hospital or hospital emergency room, or a volunteer with or 9 employee of a fire station or emergency medical service who is performing activities
10 within the scope of the volunteer's or employee's fire services or emergency medical 11 services duties; and

12 (2) there is no evidence the infant has been physically injured before
13 abandonment.

14 (d) A person to whom an infant is surrendered in the manner described in (c)
15 of this section shall

16 (1) act appropriately to care for the infant;

17 (2) inform the parent that the parent may, but is not required to, answer
18 any questions regarding the name, identity, and medical history of the infant and 19 parents of the infant unless the parent chooses to contact the department under (3) of 20 this subsection;

21 (3) ask the parent if the parent wishes to relinquish the parent's 22 parental rights and release the infant for adoption; if the answer is affirmative, the 23 person shall contact the department so that the parent can discuss that option with the 24 department;

25 (4) immediately notify the nearest office of the department that the 26 infant has been surrendered in the manner described in (c) of this section.

27 (e) An individual, agency, facility, or entity that receives an infant abandoned
28 safely under (c) of this section is not liable for civil damages for failure to discharge
29 the duties listed in (d) of this section.

30 (f) A record regarding the surrender of an infant under (c) of this section is 31 confidential and not subject to public inspection or copying under AS 40.25.100 -

1 40.25.220.

2 * Sec. 4. AS 47.10.086(a) is amended to read:

3 (a) Except as provided in (b), (c), and (g) [(b) AND (c)] of this section, the 4 department shall make timely, reasonable efforts to provide family support services to 5 the child and to the parents or guardian of the child that are designed to prevent out-of-
6 home placement of the child or to enable the safe return of the child to the family
7 home, when appropriate, if the child is in an out-of-home placement. The department's 8 duty to make reasonable efforts under this subsection includes the duty to

9 (1) identify family support services that will assist the parent or 10 guardian in remedying the conduct or conditions in the home that made the child a
11 child in need of aid;

12 (2) actively offer the parent or guardian, and refer the parent or 13 guardian to, the services identified under (1) of this subsection; the department shall 14 refer the parent or guardian to community-based family support services whenever 15 community-based services are available and desired by the parent or guardian; and

16 (3) document the department's actions that are taken under (1) and (2)
17 of this subsection.

18 * Sec. 5. AS 47.10.086 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

19 (g) The department is not required to make reasonable efforts of the type
20 described in (a) of this section if the department took emergency custody of an infant
21 under AS 47.10.142 after the infant was abandoned safely within the meaning of 22 AS 47.10.013(c).

23 * Sec. 6. AS 47.10.990 is amended by adding a new paragraph to read:

24 (32) "infant" means a child who is less than 21 days of age.
