ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

The bill would amend current statute by requiring the Governor to submit all applications for executive clemency to the parole board and would mandate a sixty-day waiting period after their submission before any action could be taken on such applications. The bill would also require the parole board to notify the victims as well as the Department of Law and the Office of Victim's Rights of the initial application and any resulting action taken by the Governor.

It is not anticipated that this bill would have any significant fiscal impact upon the Department of Law.
