ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

This proposed legislation reinstates the Alaska Longevity Bonus (ALB) payments for individuals who were qualified to receive them before January 1, 1997, and who received a payment in June 2003 when funding for the program ended. To qualify for the ALB, individuals must reapply for the program before January 1, 2008, and be a resident of the state under AS 01.10.055 on the date the reapplication is signed.

ANALYSIS CONTINUATION

Administrative Costs for the Alaska Longevity Bonus Program

This fiscal note represents the administrative costs for the Alaska Longevity Bonus program.

Assumptions:

* In FY08, the Department estimates 12,631 former ALB recipients may be eligible to qualify for the ALB: 95% or approximately 11,999 will apply by January 1, 2008.

* We estimate three positions are needed to manage the Alaska Longevity Bonus program: One Program Coordinator (Range 20); one Project Assistant (Range 16), and one Eligibility Technician (Range 13). These positions will be responsible for the overall administration of the program, including the initial and ongoing determination of eligibility.

* In May 2007, DPA will begin notifying seniors about the new program and accepting applications. The first payments will be issued after July 2007.

Administrative Costs: $350.0

* Personal Services (3 positions): $240.0

* Travel (to support employee training, marketing, outreach): $7.5

* Contractual: $66.5

* Supplies: $36.0
