ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

This bill proposes amendments to Title 13 of the Alaska Statutes relating to matters following a person's death including changes to allow enforceability of a penalty clause for a will contest, raising the amount of personal property that may be collected by affidavit in the administration of small estates, and to ensure that non-probate transfers of life insurance or retirement plan benefits are not subject to the debts of the individual who was the insured or who was the plan participant or to claims of that individual's creditors. Enactment of the bill is not anticipated to fiscally impact the Department of Law.
