FISCAL NOTE # 10

STATE OF ALASKA
2008 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. SCS CSHB 307(JUD)

ANALYSIS CONTINUATION

SCSCSHB 307 makes a conviction for Assault in the Fourth Degree (excluding fear assaults) a class C felony if the defendant, within the prior 10 years, has been convicted of two or more crimes against a person. The predicate offenses include homicide, assault, stalking, and first, second, and (in some instances) third degree sexual assault.

The draft also clarifies that a prior conviction would not be counted unless the offense occurred after the effective date of the bill.

The bill increases the classification of the offense (Assault in the fourth degree under the conditions described above) to a class C felony. Felony offenses are generally more expensive than misdemeanor cases; however, it is difficult to predict with any certainty the fiscal impact this bill may have for the department and it should be considered indeterminate at this time.
