With the deepest respect for the religious traditions of all Alaskans, I offer this prayer.

Blessed Lord, from whom comes every good and perfect gift, your majesty is proclaimed by the marvels of earth and sky. Sun, moon, and stars testify of your power and wisdom. We give you thanks for the gift of this day, its challenges and its opportunities. We give you thanks for the talents of those who surround us and assist us in our work. We give you thanks for each of the communities from which we come and for our families who make the sacrifices necessary for us to serve. Upon this house, I pray, give a due sense of your grace and protection; imbue them with a confidence born of their best efforts and a trust in the democracy they serve. Spread your spirit abroad, O Lord, upon all the citizens of this state, that each may support with charity and honesty the work of those they have called upon to represent them here. For all your many blessings it is easy for us to see and for those operating but hidden from our eyes, we give you thanks. We pray for joy, for peace, and grace in our every act. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Kerttula.
