

HOUSE JOURNAL
ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
TWENTY-FIFTH LEGISLATURE

Juneau, Alaska

Monday

May 14, 2007

One Hundred Nineteenth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Harris at 10:41 a.m.

Roll call showed 38 members present. Representatives Chenault and Kohring were absent and their presence was noted later.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Representative Meyer. Representative Neuman moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

With the deepest respect for the religious beliefs of all Alaskans, I offer the following prayer.

Thank you, Heavenly Father, for the privilege of serving this great state in the House of Representatives. We pray that you will give us the strength and wisdom to make the right decisions for the people of Alaska, who have placed their trust in us to represent them. But let us not forget the children, the elderly, the poor, and those who are unable to communicate their needs to us.

Please provide us with guidance as we continue our deliberations. For we are simply 40 representatives with 40 different opinions who are trying to do our very best, for what is the best, for the state of Alaska.

Help us remember the importance of the work that we do in these chambers and in our committee rooms and how the decisions we make here today will mold the future of our state.

Thank you for the freedom that we enjoy in this country.

Please provide strength, comfort, and courage to the men and women serving our country, inside and outside of her borders. Keep them safe and bring them home soon. In your name we pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Gatto.

CERTIFICATION OF THE JOURNAL

Representative Samuels moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the 118th legislative day be approved as certified by the Assistant Chief Clerk. There being no objection, it was so ordered.
