With deepest respect for the religious beliefs of all Alaskans, I offer the following prayer.

Compassionate God, we thank you for the spirit of service that permeates this House. We thank you for the gifts that these legislators bring to the tasks before them, for the commitment to excellence that motivates their efforts, for the courage to lay themselves and their work before the people of Alaska.

We pray that these representatives and their staffs will find in what they do a sense of satisfaction that exceeds their expectations and that their love of Alaska will find expression in acts that will contribute to Alaska becoming an even finer place than it is now. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Neuman.
