In deepest respect for the religious beliefs of each person here, I invite you into a time of prayer and reflection. Let us pray.

O God, our Creator, we come to this House from many different places and cultures of Alaska. We have many different needs that must be taken care of by this body. Help us to find the common ground that unites us and work from that point to find answers acceptable to all. Ultimately we are all one family, your family, and you know our needs better than all. Give us direction and guidance to find solutions that are worthy of your praise. When our energy runs low, our patience is stretched, and we think we can't find a solution. Help us find one. For we do this work in your honor and the honor of those that have elected us. They have given us the responsibility to act on their behalf and your behalf. All this we ask in honor of you and in awe of you. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Meyer.
