

SENATE JOURNAL
ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
TWENTY-FIFTH LEGISLATURE

FIRST SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Wednesday

March 28, 2007

Seventy-second Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Green at 11:07 a.m.

The roll showed nineteen members present. Senator Therriault was absent.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Pastor Scott Williamson of the Glacier Valley Baptist Church. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent that the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

Heavenly Father, you created all people with the right to make free choices; I thank you for the country and the state in which we live. Thank You for the freedom this Senate has to gather here and to freely discuss and debate matters of state without coercion or fear of retaliation. Thank you for the liberty that we enjoy both as Alaskans and as Americans.

Watch over these men and women in this Senate today. Give them discernment and wisdom in all they say and do. Thank you for the sacrifice that they make as they leave their families to come serve here. Watch over their families while they are away and protect their families.

I thank you for the men and women of this state and country who have given their lives so that we can enjoy our freedoms. Thank you for those who at this very moment are serving with our armed forces, because they are willing to put their lives in harm's way for this country and for citizens in other countries. Watch over the men and women of our Armed Forces today and every day.

I pray these things in the name of Jesus Christ who gives true freedom and liberty. Amen.

Senator Hoffman led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Certification

Senator Stevens moved and asked unanimous consent that the journals for the seventieth and seventy-first legislative days be approved as certified by the Secretary. Without objection, it was so ordered.
