ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)
 "An Act relating to murder; authorizing capital punishment, classifying murder in the first degree as a capital felony, and allowing the imposition of the death penalty for certain murders; establishing sentencing procedures for capital felonies; and amending Rules 32, 32.1, and 32.3, Alaska Rules of Criminal Procedure, and Rules 204, 209, 210, and 212, Alaska Rules of Appellate Procedure."

Due to U.S. Supreme Court case law, passage of this legislation will require the department to conduct additional in-depth investigations on those defendants sentenced to death. Experience in other states has shown that the entire life of the defendant must be investigated for mitigating factors.

ANALYSIS CONTINUATION

In addition to those investigations conducted for the state it is likely that the department will be asked to assist, or conduct the investigations of other municipal police departments.

In order to adequately comply with this legislation the department estimates that it will require two (2) full time investigators.
