ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

This bill attempts to declare that firearms that are made in Alaska are exempt from any federal law or regulation. The bill has significant constitutional issues. These issues would most likely arise in the context of a state citizen being charged with a crime in federal court and could result in significant litigation in both state and federal court. While such litigation is likely, it is difficult to estimate with any certainty the costs that might be incurred and they are therefore indeterminate at this point.
