Alaskans enjoy a rich diversity of religious and spiritual beliefs, and it is with deep respect for all that I offer this prayer on behalf of and for the blessing of our representatives as they seek to know and do the highest good for Alaska and the nation in the work of the House of Representatives.

Dear God, please guide us and open our hearts so that we are able to listen with compassion and understanding, to speak calmly and with kindness. Guide us to look not for right and wrong but rather to identify what is needed and appropriate.

Creator of the Universe, in championing the well being, welfare, and dignity of all citizens living throughout the state, from those in cities of tens of thousands to those in villages of tens and hundreds, help us recognize and honor the needs of all as we try to meet those needs in the best possible ways. Teach us all to be equal contributors to the beauty of the whole, to discover our unique qualities and to express them in ways that exemplify harmony and truth.

We live in a state rich with beauty and splendor of the natural world. Let us honor the magnificence of life in us as in nature. Bless us that we be a source of peace, joy, and light - each in our own lives and in the lives of one another. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Neuman.
