O Lord our God,

This morning we could not see the sun, but we knew it was still above our heads, warming the earth and providing light.

May we be able to look behind the various clouds that appear in our lives, and be able to see the Divine Light, at work in the heart of all situations.

May we be able to look beyond the mottled appearances of those around us, and see the Divine Light that resides and works in all people.

May we look beyond the self-assured appearances that we project to others, and see the Divine Light that illuminates our inner being.

And having seen the Light, may we act in hope, and compassion, and confidence. Amen.

Senator Stedman led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.
