FISCAL NOTE #2

STATE OF ALASKA
2011 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. CSHB 8(FIN)

Analysis

CSHB 008(), Version "B" would require the Attorney General file a report with the chairs of the appropriate legislative committees if the Attorney General were to find that a federal statute, regulation, [or] executive order, or secretarial order (1) is unconstitutional or was not properly adopted and (2) would preempt a state law if it were constitutional and properly adopted. The Attorney General would be required to include in the report an explanation of the grounds for the finding and a written opinion that analyzes the basis for the finding.

There is no anticipated fiscal impact to Department of Law.
