FISCAL NOTE #15

STATE OF ALASKA
2012 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. CSSB 86(JUD)

Analysis

Committee Substitute for Senate Bill 86 (JUD) makes several changes to the statutes that govern protective proceedings. Two of those changes will likely impact the court system, though the extent of the impact is too speculative to support a fiscal note and, in any event, may not be felt immediately.

Sections 8 and 10 allow for temporary conservators to be appointed within 72 hours of the filing of the petition and section 10 further allows for ex parte protective orders when a person believes that an order is necessary to protect a vulnerable person from fraud.

The court's experience with temporary guardianships (AS 13.26.140) and ex parte protective orders in other contexts suggests that passage of this bill will result in more cases being filed that must be heard on short notice. If that increase becomes significant, and it likely will in the future, the court system may need to return to the legislature for additional funding. At this point, however, the number of conservatorship petitions filed each year is not great enough to warrant a fiscal note.
