FISCAL NOTE #7

STATE OF ALASKA
2012 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. CSSB 210(FIN)

Analysis

SB 210 amends existing law on crimes of assault in the third degree if a person causes injury to a child under the age of 12. Current law reads under the age of 10 years.

This bill also adds a new section to existing statute to include crimes of endangering the welfare of a child in the first degree if, being a parent, guardian, or other person legally charged with the care of the child under 16 years of age, the person recklessly fails to provide adequate food or liquids to a child, causing protracted impairment of the child's health.

And lastly, the bill further defines "serious physical injury".

The fiscal impact of the passage of this legislation on the Department of Corrections is indeterminate. If passed, the Department of Corrections will monitor possible future fiscal impacts.
