FISCAL NOTE #1

STATE OF ALASKA
2012 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. SB 221

Analysis

Bill Language:

Under current statute, 50% of the Alcoholic Beverage Excise Tax is deposited into the alcohol and other drug abuse treatment and prevention fund , a subaccount within the general fund, and the remaining 50% is deposited directly into the general fund. This bill would require the entire proceeds of the Alcoholic Beverage Excise Tax to be deposited in the alcohol and other drug abuse treatment and prevention fund established in the general fund. In FY 2011, the Tax Division collected approximately $38.7 million in total alcoholic beverage excise tax. Approximately $19.3 million was deposited in the alcohol and other drug abuse treatment and prevention fund. Under this bill, the entire amount would be deposited in the drug abuse treatment and prevention fund.

Revenues:

The bill has no effect on total revenues.

Expenditures:

The department can implement the provisions of the bill with existing resources.
