

HOUSE JOURNAL
ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
TWENTY-SEVENTH LEGISLATURE - FIRST SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Wednesday

February 9, 2011

Twenty-third Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Chenault at 10:35 a.m.

Roll call showed 38 members present. Representative Joule was absent and later excused.

Representative Austerman moved and asked unanimous consent that Representative Guttenberg be excused from a call of the House today. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, the Reverend Dr. Phil Campbell of Northern Light United Church. Representative P. Wilson moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

In the tradition in which I was raised, it was customary for us to bow our heads and fold our hands during prayer. This was a signal of reverence, but I have come to discover that it can also draw me inward and cut me off from community. Recently I have begun to pray with my palms turned upward and my head lifted up, and I have discovered that when I do that I am more open. In whatever way you ready yourself, I invite you into awareness of it as we share this time together. Let us pray:

Creator and Sustainer, I pray for openness - openness to your spirit of wisdom and compassion and openness to one another. Heighten the receptivity of those gathered here.

Surprise them with fresh perspectives and grant them the capacity to imagine new possibilities. May each one in this chamber truly hear all that is said this day to the end that insight will grow and knowledge will be gained. Creator and Sustainer, hear these and all our prayers. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Gatto.

CERTIFICATION OF THE JOURNAL

Representative Austerman moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the 21st and 22nd legislative days be approved as certified by the Chief Clerk. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

The Governor's transmittal letter dated February 8, 2011, follows:

"Dear Speaker Chenault:

Under the authority of Article III, Section 18, of the Alaska Constitution, I am transmitting a bill relating to the protection of property of persons under disability; relating to the crime of violating a protective order concerning certain vulnerable persons; relating to aggravating factors at sentencing for offenses concerning a victim 65 years or older; and relating to the protection of vulnerable adults.

Financial exploitation of the elderly and other vulnerable adults is a growing problem. Victims of financial exploitation may not need a guardian, but may need assistance stopping immediate misuse or theft of their money. These victims find it difficult to access the courts and obtain prompt and inexpensive relief. With a temporary conservator, the vulnerable victim retains autonomy while receiving assistance. The ex parte relief from fraud procedure is similar to the existing domestic violence protection law, providing a means for vulnerable adults to independently obtain straightforward, expedited relief from immediate financial exploitation.

I am committed to protecting our seniors and other vulnerable adults. This legislation strengthens the laws against financial exploitation and enhances the ability to obtain emergency protection orders for seniors. It improves the ability of those investigating reports of harm to obtain vital information in a timely manner, and will lead to better services and safety for vulnerable adults who are abused, neglected, or exploited and unable to protect their own interests.

I urge your prompt and favorable action on this measure.

Sincerely,
/s/
Sean Parnell
Governor"

HB 151

HOUSE BILL NO. 151 by Representatives Dick and Kawasaki, entitled:

"An Act relating to occupational death benefits for peace officers and firefighters under the Public Employees' Retirement System of Alaska; and providing for an effective date."

was read the first time and referred to the Labor & Commerce and Finance Committees.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESSHR 5

Urging the United States Congress to fund fully the essential air service program.

There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Amendment No. 1 was offered by Representatives Gruenberg and P. Wilson:

Page 2, line 4, following "elimination":

Insert "or any significant diminution"

Insert "or any significant diminution"

Page 2, line 10, following "program":

Insert "affecting Alaska"

Representative Gruenberg moved and asked unanimous consent that Amendment No. 1 be adopted. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Representative Costello moved and asked unanimous consent that she be allowed to abstain from voting because of a conflict of interest. Objection was heard, and Representative Costello was required to vote.

The question being: "Shall HR 5 am pass the House?" The roll was taken with the following result:

HR 5 am

Special Order of Business

YEAS: 38 NAYS: 0 EXCUSED: 2 ABSENT: 0

Yea: Austerman, Chenault, Cissna, Costello, Dick, Doogan, Edgmon, Fairclough, Feige, Foster, Gara, Gardner, Gatto, Gruenberg,
