In the spirit of respect, honoring all the diverse beliefs held by the citizens of Alaska, I offer this blessing for you today.

Great God, called by so many names in so many places, may these elected leaders find their best selves in their work of service to the people. May they be open to all the wisdom that is available to them, from the wisdom of their colleagues to the quiet wisdom whispering in their hearts. May they serve, working toward the greater good as they make important decisions to help build a better future. May they feel compassion for all the people they serve and know the equal value of all the Alaskans they represent. May they find patience when things take longer than expected and may they find calm when situations feel anxious. Theirs is holy and important work. May they feel blessed as they do the job they are called to do. Amen.
