

SENATE JOURNAL
ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
TWENTY-SEVENTH LEGISLATURE
FIRST SESSION

Juneau, Alaska Friday February 4, 2011

Eighteenth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Stevens at 10:00 a.m.

The roll showed eighteen members present. Senators Hoffman, Paskvan, were excused from a call of the Senate.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Reverend Dr. Phil Campbell of Northern Light United Church. Senator Ellis moved and asked unanimous consent that the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

On Wednesday I mentioned public theologian, Reinhold Niebuhr, author of the Serenity Prayer. As I prepared for my final morning of prayer with you, other words of Niebuhr came to mind. Those of you gathered here inevitably deal with disagreement and divergent views. At times when I have been in the midst of conflict and divergence, Niebuhr's words spoke to me and thus I offer them to you. He would often say amid the fray, "We must fight their falsehood with our truth, but we must also fight the falsehood in our truth." With the challenge of Niebuhr's words in mind, I invite us into a time of reflection and prayer together. Let us pray:

I thank you, Gracious Creator, for meaningful work and for the opportunity to serve this great state and all its inhabitants. Embolden all of us to act with the courage of our convictions, and grant to us also a spirit of humility that we may be attentive to viewpoints and experiences different from our own. Remind us that whatever our perspective, it is unavoidably partial, and that together we see a larger portion of the entire picture than any of us can alone. And now, abide with all those gathered here in their deliberations and considerations. O Gracious Creator, in this time of service, hear these and all our prayers. Amen.

Senator Coghill led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Certification

Senator Meyer moved and asked unanimous consent that the journals for the sixteenth and seventeenth legislative days be approved as certified by the Secretary. Without objection, it was so ordered.
