

SENATE JOURNAL
ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
TWENTY-SEVENTH LEGISLATURE
FIRST SPECIAL SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Wednesday

May 4, 2011

Seventeenth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Stevens at 11:02 a.m.

The roll showed seventeen members present. Senators Dyson, French were excused from a call of the Senate. Senator Wielechowski was absent.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Senator McGuire. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent that the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

When I asked my son Grayson what I should pray with my colleagues about he told me, "Please respect God and the truth."

Thank you dear Lord for our children, for the clarity they bring to our lives and for giving us the wisdom, strength and inspiration to instill in them, the love and values you have instilled in us. As we labor in this body to make this world better for them, please give us the courage dear Lord, to listen to them and their wisdom.

As we labor through these days, I'd like to take a moment to share with the body a passage I derive particular spiritual inspiration from and hope that it lifts your spirits here today:

DESIDERATA

Go placidly amid the noise and the haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence.

As far as possible, without surrender, be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even to the dull and the ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons; they are vexatious to the spirit.

If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain or bitter, for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time.

Exercise caution in your business affairs, for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals, and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love, for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment, it is as perennial as the grass.

Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with dark imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness.

Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.

Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be. And whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life, keep peace in your soul.

With all its sham, drudgery, and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be cheerful. Strive to be happy.

Amen.

(Max Ehrmann)

Senator Giessel led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.
