Chair Hoffman reported that the next scheduled meeting would be posted on the following day.

Senator Stedman asked Louanne Christian, House and Senate Finance Committee Assistant to stand and read a statement in recognition of her upcoming retirement and her 27 years of service to the committees. He remembered that when he and Senator Hoffman had become Senate Finance Committee co-chairs there had been restructuring and Ms. Christian had been put in charge of both the House and Senate Finance Committee assistant/secretary teams in order to synchronize their working relationship and make information more accessible to the public. He expressed that Ms. Christian would be missed and thanked her for her work.

Ms. Christian replied that she would miss the committee as well.

Chair Hoffman echoed Senator Stedman's comments.

Co-Chair Thomas thanked Ms. Christian on behalf of the House Finance Committee.

HB 284 was HEARD and HELD in Committee for further consideration.

HB 285 was HEARD and HELD in Committee for further consideration.
