FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS #2

STATE OF ALASKA
2014 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. CSHB 375(JUD)

Analysis

This bill repeals the sections of law which allow a person to enter and remain on apparently unused and unimproved land unless they have notice that they are trespassing. This removes the property owner's responsibility to provide notice of trespass in a reasonably conspicuous manner.

Criminal trespass in the second degree is a class B misdemeanor and is punishable by a term of imprisonment of not more than 90 days. The Department could see a fiscal impact of $0 (no days served) to $14,280.30 (90 days served) for each class B misdemeanor conviction under this legislation.

At this time the department does not have information to quantify the number of potential offenders this legislation would create and will continue to monitor for future impacts. The Department of Corrections anticipates minimal to no fiscal impact at this time.
