FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS #3

STATE OF ALASKA
2013 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. CSSB 64(STA)

Analysis

SB 64 amends the current requirements imposed on defendants applying for credit towards a sentence for time spent in a treatment program. This bill also creates a sentencing commission and outlines the commission's purpose and organization. In addition, the bill adds circumstances under which the court may terminate a revocation of a driver's license for an offense, or grant limited license privileges, makes modifications to the statute governing court ordered treatment, and outlines the creation of a probation and parole program related to controlled substance restrictions.

This legislation is not expected to have a fiscal impact on the Public Defender Agency; therefore, the Agency submits a zero fiscal note.
