FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS #5

STATE OF ALASKA
2013 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. CSSB 65(JUD)

Analysis

SB 65 updates the trust and estate laws for the state of Alaska. It extends protection for retirement plan assets to the beneficiaries of retirement plans (often the surviving spouse), provides means of representation for minors and incapacitated persons in dealing with settlements of accounts or settlement agreements, amends the 2003 Alaska Principal and Income Act to conform to current IRS regulations, provides rules concerning who may control the disposition of decedents' remains, makes conforming amendments to Alaska's laws regarding insurable interests to align with changes to the Uniform Trust Code, provides that IRA interests can be voluntarily transferred to a family member or trust, makes amendments to Alaska's community property provisions to update and clarify the ownership of community property, shortens the statute of limitations for creditors' claims for transfers into an irrevocable trust, increases protections for L.L.C. and Limited Partnership interests, and allows a beneficiary to extend the time funds will be held in a Uniform Transfer to Minors Account.

There is no anticipated fiscal impact to the Division of Insurance from this bill.
