FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS #1

STATE OF ALASKA
2014 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. SB 145

Analysis

AS 39.25.159 is titled "Employment preference for veterans and former prisoners of war." Within this statute is a definition of "veteran" which includes dates of war or conflict in which a person who has served is considered a veteran. At present, only veterans serving in conflicts up to the end of the Vietnam War are eligible for employment preferences. The bill would extend the employment preferences to veterans of the 1991 Gulf War and veterans who served on active duty beginning September 11, 2001, and ending on the date determined under federal law as the last date of Operation Iraqi Freedom. The bill would amend the relevant Alaska Statutes (AS 39.25.159) to include these more recent conflicts and incorporate by reference the corresponding federal statute related to veterans' preferences so that the state statutes would not need further updating when future conflicts arise.

It is anticipated that there will be a de minimis increase in productive work hours as a result of additional interviews that will be required as a result of expanding the date range for employment preferences for veterans. Therefore DOPLR submits a zero fiscal note.
