The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, The Most Reverend Edward J. Burns, Bishop of the Catholic Diocese of Juneau. Representative-elect P. Wilson moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Good and gracious God, Heavenly Father, as the people of this great state have put their confidence into these men and women by electing them to office, we now turn to you, confident that you will hear our prayer. We ask for your blessing. Bless these members of the House of Representatives with the gifts of your spirit—the gifts of courage, wisdom, strength, and grace. Guide them in their deliberations so that they may always work and strive for the common good of our society. In a particular way, stretch out your hand and bless the new members of this body. As they begin their public service, may they know the gratitude of the community for their sacrifice to serve, and may they work with their colleagues to bring forth laws that are just.

Heavenly Father, as you desire justice for all, enable these men and women to uphold the rights of others; do not allow them to be misled by ignorance or corrupted by fear or favor. Unite them to yourself in the bond of charity towards all and keep them faithful to all that is true.

We ask your blessing upon them as they begin this day, the 28th Alaska State Legislative session. And we ask all this in your holy name. Amen.

Lieutenant Governor Treadwell read the following Certificate of Election:
