Eighty-eighth Day

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Representative Herron. Representative T. Wilson moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

May our thoughts and prayers go out to the family and our friend, Bennie.

With the deepest respect for the religious beliefs of all Alaskans, I offer the following prayer.

On this day, the 33rd wedding anniversary with my wife Margaret, I share these words of thankfulness.

All of us will share our lives with loved ones. But nearly all of us will miss out on life's so-called big prizes like leading your team to win the Super Bowl; being nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize; buying that multi-million dollar lottery ticket. And regardless of recent action scenes that we were witness to in this room, there will be no Oscars given out for those most memorable performances.

However, all of us can appreciate life's small delights: a pat on the back, a kiss on the cheek, a hug from your grandchild, a salmon in the net, a full moon, a crackling fire, a cold pale ale, and, of course, the one enjoyment that always is entertaining – working with 39 other Alaskans in this Chamber. So don't fret, don't mither about reaching life's well-known prizes. Enjoy life's everyday rewards as there is abundance. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Thompson.

CERTIFICATION OF THE JOURNAL

Representative Pruitt moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the 87th legislative day be approved as certified by the Chief Clerk. There being no objection, it was so ordered.
