The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Pastor Tom Matthews of Douglas Island Bible Church. Representative T. Wilson moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Respecting the fact that there are diverse religious beliefs represented here today, I appreciate the invitation to open your session with a word of prayer.

Dear Lord,

Thank you for allowing me the opportunity to lift this group up in prayer. Because they have committed themselves to serving our state in this way, I am sure many of these representatives are missing their homes, families, and familiar surroundings. Lord, I ask you for strength and encouragement while they are away.

I also know through what I have read and through talking with some of those here, that there is a great load of work that each of them is carrying. I pray that you would help them to be strong and steady in the tasks they are doing, that they would be able to persevere in spite of fatigue.

I pray that you would give them wisdom as only you can give. Wisdom that is truly beyond themselves. It has to be hard when decisions come up that are a challenge to know what is the best way to go. I know you can lead and direct, and I pray that you would do so.

Finally Lord, thank you for your instruction in Micah 6:8 that tells us: He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you, but to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

I lift this prayer in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Johnson.
