ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE

TWENTY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE - SECOND SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Thursday

April 17, 2014

Eighty-seventh Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Chenault at 10:38 a.m.

Roll call showed 38 members present. Representatives Gruenberg and Holmes were absent and their presence was noted later.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Representative Munoz. Representative P. Wilson moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Please join me in prayer on this most sacred time - Holy Week for Christians and Jewish people around the world - the days preceding Easter and the celebration of Passover. Today is Maundy Thursday, the day of celebration of the Last Supper of Christ.

With respect to all faiths, I offer the following prayer:

Heavenly Father,
Thank you for the privilege of serving you and the people of Alaska.

As we meet to finish the work before us we ask that you bless us with strength and peace of mind and heart, that we are doing all we can to make good decisions for the people we represent. We ask that you give us wisdom, discernment, and clarity as we work on complicated issues, and that we hold good will and respect for our colleagues, even when we disagree.

Thank you, Father, for watching over us and blessing the work of this legislative body.

In your Son's name we ask it. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Gara.

CERTIFICATION OF THE JOURNAL

Representative Pruitt moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the 86th legislative day be approved as certified by the Chief Clerk. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

"* Section 1. AS 44.88 is amended by adding a new section to read:

Article 9A. In-State Refiner and Hydrocarbon Processor Loan Program.

Sec. 44.88.800. In-state refiner and hydrocarbon processor loan program. (a) The authority may make loans of up to $20,000,000 to a person that owns an in-state oil refinery or a hydrocarbon processing facility south of 68 degrees North latitude if the primary function is the manufacturing and sale of refined petroleum products or processed hydrocarbon products to third parties in arm's length transactions. A loan under this section may be used for working capital, equipment, construction, or other commercial purposes. A loan under this section may be made only if the authority finds that

(1) the loan is required to

(A) maintain profitability of the in-state refiner or hydrocarbon processing facility and the refinery or facility would otherwise be in financial distress; or

(B) restart operations of an in-state refiner or hydrocarbon processing facility; and

(2) the primary function of the in-state refiner or hydrocarbon processing facility is to engage in the manufacture of refined petroleum products or processed hydrocarbon products in the state, and the in-state refiner or hydrocarbon processing facility is not affiliated with a subsequent purchaser of more than 10 percent of the in-state refiner's or hydrocarbon processing facility's product; the parties to a contract or purchase are affiliated if, in the judgment of the authority, one of the parties to the contract or purchase exercises substantial influence over the policies and actions of the other as evidenced by a relationship based on common ownership or family interest or by action taken in concert whether or not that influence is based on stockholdings, stockholders, officers, or directors.

(b) A loan made under this section

(1) must comply with AS 44.88.159;

(2) may exceed a term of 10 years; and

(3) may not bear an interest rate less than the cost of funds to the authority.

(c) The authority shall adopt regulations necessary for the following purposes in connection with its programs for the financing of projects under this section:

(1) determination of borrower eligibility;

(2) loan guidelines and terms, including

(A) required loan-to-value ratios; and

(B) a method for determining loan interest rates; and

(3) the qualifications of loan originators and servicers and the method of allocating amounts available for the purchase of loans.

(d) The application for a loan under this section must be received by the authority before December 31, 2015.

(e) The legislature may appropriate the money required to make a loan issued under this section prudent for the authority.

(f) The authority may allow a borrower to begin repayment of a loan issued under this section up to five years after the loan is issued if the legislature appropriates an amount of money determined by the authority to be sufficient to protect the assets and bond rating of the authority.

(g) In this section, "cost of funds" means the true interest cost expressed as a rate on tax-exempt bonds of the authority plus an additional percentage as determined by the authority to represent the allocable expenses of operation, costs of issuance, and loan servicing costs."
