Dear Heavenly Father,
Thank you for the strength and endurance you blessed us with during the past couple of days. Thank you for the beautiful sunshine today.

Help us as we work through the education debate and help us know how to best serve the youngest citizens of our state. May we develop these young minds in a way that lays the foundation for the lives you intended.

In the remaining time in this session guide us to make sound decisions steeped in wisdom. Help us work with and encourage each other as we meet the challenges before us, so that the outcome far exceeds our expectations.

Be with our families wherever they may be, and be with those in our armed forces and keep them safe. And thank you,

Heavenly Father, for your love for us, for your care for us, and for your guidance.

In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.
