

SENATE JOURNAL
ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
TWENTY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE
SECOND SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Wednesday

February 12, 2014

Twenty-third Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Huggins at 10:46 a.m.

The roll showed eighteen members present. Senator Stevens was excused from a call of the Senate. Senator Gardner was absent.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Helena Fagan, Director of the Juneau Shambhala Center. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent that the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

Shambhala is a global network of people from all walks of life, dedicated to the principle that the fundamental nature of every human being is basic goodness. We each have the capacity to wake up and live consciously. Each moment of our lives we can choose whether to go toward clarity and happiness or confusion and pain.

One of our teachers, Pema Chodron, shares a story that circulated after the September 11, 2001 attacks: "A Native American grandfather was speaking to his grandson about the violence and cruelty in the world and how it comes about. He said it was as if two wolves were fighting in his heart. One wolf was vengeful and angry, and the other wolf was understanding and kind. The young man asked his grandfather which wolf would win the fight in his heart. And the grandfather answered, 'The one that wins will be the one I choose to feed.'"

As you work together today, may you choose to feed the right wolf. May your innate intelligence help you to see what escalates aggression and what uncovers good heartedness. May each of you take the leap to do whatever you can to help our state and our world.

Senator Giessel led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.
