

SENATE JOURNAL
ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
TWENTY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE
SECOND SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Friday

March 14, 2014

Fifty-third Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Huggins at 1:24 p.m.

The roll showed nineteen members present. Senator Kelly was absent.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Senator Dyson. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent that the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

"Mr. President,

I have lived, Sir, a long time, and the longer I live, the more convincing proofs I see of this truth – that God governs in the affairs of men. And if a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without his notice, is it probable that an empire can rise without his aid? We have been assured, Sir, in the sacred writings, that "except the Lord build the house they labor in vain that build it."

I firmly believe this; and I also believe that without his concurring aid we shall succeed in this political building no better than the builders of Babel: We shall be divided by our little partial local interests; our projects will be confounded, and we ourselves shall become a reproach and bye word down to future ages."

-Benjamin Franklin's Request for
Prayers at the Constitutional Convention

And then he prayed, "I pray imploring the assistance of God and his blessings on our deliberations in this chamber."

In Christ's Name I Pray,

Amen.

Senator Dyson led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Certification

Senator Coghill moved and asked unanimous consent that the journals for the fifty-first and fifty-second legislative days be approved as certified by the Secretary. Without objection, it was so ordered.
