ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
TWENTY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE
SECOND SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Tuesday

April 8, 2014

Seventy-eighth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Huggins at 11:06 a.m.

The roll showed twenty members present.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Senator Coghill. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent that the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

Almighty God, maker of heaven and earth, giver of life, we bow this morning reflecting with gratitude the blessing of life, of freedom - and our duty to our people.

For those who have gone before us in this assembly and in our state we wish to honor them by doing our term well. We could use your help in wisdom, compassion and justice. Many days we have memorials on our calendar that serve as a reminder that our time of service is brief and many have finished their course. We ask for patience, listening, and boldness to accompany us by your grace, in our portion of this work.

We are glad to work with each other as we serve this vast and beautiful geography, a small but wonderful population we call home - our Alaska. We have endured tensions while debating; we have tried to work out differences. We have done our best to honor the trust given us by our people. We made good friends along the way. So we pause to express our gratitude for each one we have had the privilege to serve with here and ask your blessing on each Senator today.

Please guide us in respecting each other as we bring our passions to this place for decision making.

And now as we go to the work of the day, we ask for your guidance even when we are so busy we may not be aware.

I pray in the name of my Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Senator Stedman led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Certification

Senator Coghill moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the seventy-seventh legislative day be approved as certified by the Secretary. Without objection, it was so ordered.

SB 178

The Finance Committee considered SENATE BILL NO. 178 "An Act relating to the application of the passenger vehicle rental tax; and providing for an effective date" and recommended it be replaced with

CS FOR SENATE BILL NO. 178(FIN) "An Act relating to the passenger and recreational vehicle rental taxes; and providing for an effective date."

and further recommended the adoption of two Finance Committee Letters of Intent:

Letter of Intent

April 7, 2014

The Honorable Kevin Meyer, Co-Chair
The Honorable Click Bishop, Member
Senate Finance Committee
State Capitol, Room 532
Juneau, AK 99801

Re: Question on Vehicle Rental Tax

Dear Senators Meyer and Bishop:

The purpose of this letter is to clarify the Department's position and interpretation of the definition of "passenger vehicle" in AS 43.52.099(2) for the purposes of our vehicle rental tax. Specifically, the Department has been asked how it interprets the phrase: "a motor vehicle ... that is driven or moved on a highway or public right-of-way in the state" contained in the definition.

For vehicle rental tax purposes, the Department's interpretation of this definition is based on access. If a member of the general public can freely drive on the road system without breaking any laws or having someone stop them and tell them they cannot go any further, they are on a highway or public right-of-way. For example, an individual can rent a vehicle in Anchorage, drive to Deadhorse via the Dalton Highway, and travel many places around Deadhorse and the North Slope in general. However, there are areas of the North Slope that are private or restricted that a member of the general public would not be able to drive to. Vehicle rental tax would apply to that transaction because the individual drove the rented vehicle on different highways and public rights-of-way.

If an Alaska business rents to another Alaska business located in an area of the state that is not accessible by the general public, and all of the vehicles the business rents, regardless of rental period, are never driven on a road that can be accessed by the general public, then under our interpretation of the current statutes, those transactions would not be taxable. However, once that vehicle is driven on a highway or public right-of-way that is open to and accessible by the general public, and the rental period is less than 90 days, it becomes a taxable transaction under the current definition.

I hope that this helps clarify the questions that have recently arisen on this bill. If you have further questions, do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

/s/

Angela Rodell
Commissioner

Letter of Intent

It is the intent of the Senate Finance Committee that the passenger vehicle rental tax described in SB 178, including the original law and the changes made by the committee substitute, should not be applied to Alaskan businesses doing business with other Alaskan businesses. The Department of Revenue (DOR) should not apply the tax retroactively to businesses it determines should be, or should have been, collecting the tax. However, if DOR is able to determine a business collected the tax but did not remit the tax to DOR, then DOR should charge back taxes, penalties and/or interest on those unpaid taxes.

In 2003, the legislature passed House Bill 271, a passenger vehicle rental tax intended to raise revenue from tourists renting passenger vehicles so that they could help pay for the wear and tear they inflict on the State's publicly-maintained roads.

Since the passage of HB 271, AS 43.52 has been amended three times; two of which were to exempt Alaskan businesses doing business with other Alaskan businesses. The third time was to exempt motorcycles.

The intent of SB 178 is to clarify, once again, which rental vehicles are to be covered by the tax and which are not. It is the committee's intent that only passenger rental cars, as described in AS 43.52.010, should be taxed.
