

SENATE JOURNAL
ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
TWENTY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE

SECOND SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Thursday

April 17, 2014

Eighty-seventh Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Huggins at 10:49 a.m.

The roll showed nineteen members present. Senator Ellis was absent.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Senator Micciche. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent that the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

Lord, we thank you as a body for the privilege of serving in such a remarkably stable political atmosphere...a place where our minor philosophical differences are settled through civil debate and respectful handshakes after a contentious vote. We pray for those that settle such things in other places through bloody violence designed to silence opposing words and thought.

We celebrate as we near a season that recognizes the sacred sacrifice and victory of your Son who offers us new life; joyful Easter egg hunts filled with innocent laughter; and for all the ample blessings of Spring in our great State. The awesome bounty you have provided from fish to timber, rocks to hydrocarbons, mountains to the sea is unprecedented and of which we are certainly grateful. We ask that you help us ensure a balance between the value of stewardship and conservation and the enormous benefits of responsible resource development.

We pray this morning for those we serve...especially for the Alaskans that are struggling through poverty, addiction, abuse and those in recovery. We pray for the right services to help the struggling to succeed, and the successful to prosper. We pray for those contending with temporary adverse physical and economic conditions and for continued resources to assist those that simply can't care for themselves.

Finally, we ask for your strength and guidance as we apply the values of fairness, fellowship and integrity during deliberation and for careful consideration of each decision. We ask your help to push aside our inclination toward parochialism and partisanship as we together strive for a better Alaska.

Lord, your Word says that all a man's ways seem right to him, but that You weigh the motives. May our only motives be through pure and humble hearts while we accomplish great things for our Alaska.

Help us learn to value our differences and to forgive one another, and ultimately, provide us the willingness to surrender our will in order to accomplish what You desire. I ask these things in your most wonderful name. Amen!

Senator Egan led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.
