Our most precious Heavenly Father, we ask thee today to bless us, our families, this state, our country and our young men and women that are abroad, working for us and our country. But Father, equally we ask thee to forgive us our many sins. We're not perfect. We try hard, but that's not a reason for us to justify our sins. But you can forgive our sins.

And Father, there are always trying times in every family, every group. We ask thee to bless our actions that we are about to take. They're done in good faith, and honesty, and intent. But Father, finally, we say to you, please bless us and forgive us.

In Jesus' name I pray,

Amen.

Senator McGuire led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.
