FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2015 LEGISLATIVE SESSIONAnalysis

HB106 updates Alaska's Alaska statutes AS 25.25.101 to 25.25.903, Uniform Interstate Family Support Act (UIFSA), with the 2008 version. The UIFSA provides uniform rules for the establishing, modifying, and enforcing child and spousal support orders between other states and jurisdictions. This bill affects the Alaska Child Support Services Division (CSSD) in the Department of Revenue. The Department of Law represents CSSD.

UIFSA 2008

The 2008 UIFSA contains important provisions for the enforcement and recovery of child support in international cases. The bill provides a new article 7 to address international child support cases. These changes include definitions for article 7, the processes for CSSD to initiate an international case and proceedings available to the parents. Article 7 also outlines the requirements for registering an international child support order in Alaska and how a parent can contest registration. It further outlines the grounds for Alaska to recognize and enforce international orders. The bill provides that the international order must be translated into English. The bill also addresses currency conversion.

UIFSA 2001

The bill also contains clarifying provisions from the 2001 UIFSA including clarifying the processes for a controlling order determination when there are multiple, valid orders. The bill also clarifies that the law of the issuing state governs the duration of the support order.

Federal Funding

Enactment of this legislation is necessary for the Alaska Child Support Services Division to continue to receive federal funding.

The Department of Law expects no fiscal impact should this bill become law.
