FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2016 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

Analysis

This bill amends statutes related to the cost of care for seized animals and requires the consideration of an animal's well-being when making ownership decisions in divorce proceedings. This bill also allows judges to place limitations on respondents in protective order petitions related to animals and adds conditions under which a person can be charged with violating a protective order.

The agency does not anticipate a significant fiscal impact from this legislation. Therefore, the agency submits a zero fiscal note.
