FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2015 LEGISLATIVE SESSIONAnalysis

This bill would alter the income eligibility criteria for certain categories of Medicaid eligibility and would add an eligibility category for persons under 65 who are not pregnant and whose income does not exceed 138 percent of the federal poverty line. The bill also makes changes to the provider audit process and addresses certain cost control measures.

Section 3 of the bill alters the minimum number of provider audits that the Department of Health and Social Services is required to perform. The Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) hears appeals from provider audits. The current cost of handling these appeals is approximately $60.0 per year (thousand). A significant change in the number of audits performed could affect the number of appeals and the cost of hearing them. Based on information from the Department of Health and Social Services, OAH has determined that the number of audits that generate appeals is expected to remain approximately the same if this provision is enacted, and therefore no fiscal impact has been projected.

Section 6 of the bill expands the number of Alaskans eligible for Medicaid, and would result in a larger overall enrollment in the program. OAH hears appeals from decisions to deny or limit Medicaid coverage. Based on data supplied by the Department of Health and Social Services, OAH anticipates that the number of administrative law judge hours required to hear Medicaid appeals from the Division of Public Assistance and the Division of Health Care Services would increase by approximately 16.1% in the first year of expanded eligibility and by slightly higher percentages in succeeding years. OAH has determined that appeals from the Division of Senior and Disabilities Services would not increase appreciably. Costs have been projected above using OAH's approved cost allocation rate of $165 per hour.

OAH is presently operating at or beyond capacity. The additional hearing load of this work alone would not support the creation of a new full-time administrative law judge position. In the absence of a new PCN, OAH will instead contract out hearing responsibilities to contractors as appropriate.
