FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2016 LEGISLATIVE SESSIONAnalysis

The changes proposed to criminal statute to increase the monetary threshold for certain property crimes will apply to juvenile offenders under the jurisdiction of the Division of Juvenile Justice. The changes will not negatively impact the work with juvenile offenders because the services provided by Division of Juvenile Justice are based upon risk and need, rather than purely on the level of criminal offense for which they were referred. The effort to update the threshold level, train staff, update written materials, and reprogram the Division of Juvenile Justice offender database can be accomplished using existing resources.

The changes proposed to reduce various criminal offenses to violations will have little negative impact on the work of the Division of Juvenile Justice. Very few youth are currently referred to the division for these offenses. The change to direct the court system to accept an affirmative defense to the crime of prostitution, if the person can prove they were the victim of sex trafficking at the time of the prostitution charge, will not result in any fiscal impact on the Division of Juvenile Justice.
