FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2016 LEGISLATIVE SESSIONAnalysis

This bill contemplates that management of the Constitutional Budget Reserve Fund (CBRF) would be transferred from the Treasury to the APFC. The cost of managing the CBRF at Treasury in FY16 was approximately $1.4 million. The Treasury division allocates all of its costs for managing investment funds based upon a federally approved cost allocation plan such that all costs are charged to funds based on the relative asset value of each fund to all funds managed at the Treasury. This results in an efficient and cost effective method of charging funds to be managed. If management of the CBRF is transferred to the APFC, the savings would be approximately $130,000 in external management fees as remaining internal costs would be allocated to the other funds managed by Treasury.
