

HOUSE JOURNAL
ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
TWENTY-NINTH LEGISLATURE
SECOND SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Tuesday

April 19, 2016

Ninety-second Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Chenault at 1:02 p.m.

Roll call showed 35 members present. Representative Hawker had been excused from a call of the House today. Representatives Gattis, Munoz, Pruitt, and Tuck were absent.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Representative Kito. Representative Wilson moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

With the deepest respect for all religions and spiritual beliefs, I offer this invocation in the spirit of hope and cooperation.

As we look back on the past few months and see the work that has been accomplished, and as we look forward into a future that cannot be known, we should pause and reflect in this moment on the path that has brought each one of us here to this chamber.

We all have unique reasons for being here, but ultimately we are all here for our families, our friends, our neighbors, and all Alaskans present and future. And as we contemplate the work we are about to do today and over the next several days, we should be humble in our service, thoughtful in our comments, and deliberate in our actions.

We are privileged to serve in this time of change for our state. We can step up to the challenge and complete our work quickly and efficiently, so that we can all return to our lives, to our families, to our homes, knowing that we have put our hearts into the future of our state.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Hughes.
