One Hundred Second Day

The House was called to order by Speaker Chenault at 11:03 a.m.

Roll call showed 32 members present. Representatives Hawker and Thompson had been excused from a call of the House today. Representatives Claman, Pruitt, and Wool were absent.

Representative Millett moved and asked unanimous consent that Representatives Reinbold, Saddler, and Vazquez be excused from a call of the House today. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Representative Ortiz. Representative Wilson moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

With the deepest respect for the religious beliefs of all Alaskans, I offer the following prayer.

Dear Father God,

I pray that you will help every member of the Alaska State Legislature to work cooperatively with each other. Give us the conviction to start each day, each legislative gathering on the floor, each committee hearing, and each private conversation in this building to look for the commonalities that bond us. May we be united in the desire to do the right thing and act in the best long-term interest of every Alaskan; from the newborn to the senior citizen, for those that live as far south as Hyder, as far west as Dutch Harbor, and as far north as Barrow. Help us, dear God, to act courageously, to be guided by the Spirit of God and to glorify you with heart and voice. Keep us from slipping into political divides. May our thoughts and actions be examples of unity in purpose, not only in what we say but in all that we do. I ask this for the sake of the people of Alaska, God. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Josephson.

CERTIFICATION OF THE JOURNAL

Representative Millett moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the 100th and 101st legislative days be approved as certified by the Chief Clerk. There being no objection, it was so ordered.
