10 being received.

11 * Sec. 6. AS 18.65 is amended by adding new sections to article 11 to read:

12 Sec. 18.65.815. Gun violence protective orders. (a) An immediate family 13 member or a peace officer who reasonably believes that the respondent is a danger to 14 self or others by possessing, owning, purchasing, or receiving a firearm may file a 15 petition in the district or superior court for a protective order against a respondent. The 16 petition shall describe the number, types, and locations of any firearms or ammunition 17 the petitioner believes are owned or possessed by the respondent and the basis for the 18 petition.

19 (b) When a petition for a protective order is filed, the court shall schedule a 20 hearing and provide at least 10 days' notice to the respondent of the hearing and of the 21 respondent's right to appear and be heard, either in person or through an attorney. If 22 the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the respondent is a danger to self 23 or others by possessing, owning, purchasing, or receiving a firearm, regardless of 24 whether the respondent appears at the hearing, the court may order the relief available
25 under (c) of this section. The provisions of a protective order issued under this section 26 are effective for six months unless earlier dissolved by the court.

27 (c) A protective order issued under this section shall prohibit the respondent 28 from possessing, owning, purchasing, receiving, or attempting to purchase or receive a 29 firearm or ammunition.

30 (d) If the court issues a protective order under this section, the court shall

31 (1) make reasonable efforts to ensure that the order is understood by

1 the petitioner and by the respondent, if present;

2 (2) have the order delivered to the appropriate local law enforcement
3 agency for expedited service;

4 (3) direct the respondent to surrender to the appropriate law 5 enforcement agency or sell to a firearms dealer all firearms and ammunition that the 6 respondent possesses or owns within 24 hours after receipt of the order.

7 Sec. 18.65.820. Ex parte and emergency gun violence protective orders. (a)

8 An immediate family member of a respondent or a peace officer who reasonably 9 believes that a respondent is a danger to self or others may file a petition under 10 AS 18.65.815 and request an ex parte gun violence protective order. If the court finds 11 that the petition establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that the respondent 12 poses a significant danger of injury to self or others by possessing, owning, 13 purchasing, or receiving a firearm, that less restrictive alternatives have been tried and 14 were ineffective, and that the petitioner has certified to the court in writing the efforts, 15 if any, that have been made to provide notice to the respondent, the court shall ex parte 16 and without notice to the respondent issue a protective order. Before issuing the 17 protective order, the court shall examine on oath the petitioner and any witnesses the 18 petitioner produces. The court may require the petitioner and any witnesses to submit 19 a written affidavit signed under oath instead of examining the petitioner and witnesses.
20 An ex parte protective order under this subsection shall prohibit the respondent from 21 possessing, owning, purchasing, or receiving a firearm or ammunition. An ex parte 22 protective order expires 20 days after it is issued unless dissolved earlier by the court 23 at the request of either the petitioner or the respondent after notice and, if requested, a 24 hearing. If the court issues an ex parte protective order, the court shall have the order 25 delivered to the appropriate law enforcement agency for expedited service.

26 (b) A peace officer may request an emergency gun violence protective order 27 from a judicial officer. The request may be made orally or in writing based on the 28 sworn statement of a peace officer, and in person or by telephone. If the court finds by 29 a preponderance of the evidence that the respondent poses an immediate danger of 30 injury to self or others by possessing, owning, purchasing, or receiving a firearm and 31 that less restrictive alternatives have been tried and were ineffective, the court ex parte

1 shall issue an emergency protective order. An emergency protective order shall 2 prohibit the respondent from possessing, owning, purchasing, or receiving a firearm or 3 ammunition. An emergency protective order expires 72 hours after it is issued unless 4 dissolved earlier by the court at the request of the petitioner. A peace officer who 5 obtains an emergency protective order under this subsection shall

6 (1) place the provisions of an oral order in writing on a form provided 7 by the court and file the written order with the issuing court by the end of the judicial 8 day after the order is issued; and 9 (2) immediately serve a copy of the order on the respondent.

10 Sec. 18.65.825. Modification of gun violence protective order. (a) Either the 11 petitioner or the respondent may request modification of a gun violence protective 12 order issued under AS 18.65.815 or 18.65.820(a). If a request is made for modification 13 of

14 (1) a protective order, after notice and hearing under AS 18.65.815, the 15 court shall schedule a hearing within 20 days after the date the request is made, except 16 that, if the court finds that the request is meritless on its face, the court may deny the 17 request without a hearing; or

18 (2) an ex parte protective order under AS 18.65.820(a), the court shall 19 schedule a hearing on three days' notice or on shorter notice as the court may 20 prescribe.

21 (b) If the court modifies a protective order under this section, the court shall 22 issue a modified order and shall

23 (1) make reasonable efforts to ensure that the order is understood by 24 the petitioner and by the respondent, if present at the hearing; and

25 (2) have the order delivered to the appropriate local law enforcement
 26 agency for expedited service.

27 Sec. 18.65.830. Surrender of firearms and ammunition. (a) When a court 28 issues a gun violence protective order under AS 18.65.815 - 18.65.825, the court shall 29 order the respondent to surrender to the appropriate local law enforcement agency or 30 to sell to a firearms dealer all firearms and ammunition that the person possesses, 31 owns, or has within the respondent's custody or control within 24 hours of receipt of

1 the protective order.

2 (b) Within 48 hours of receiving notice of the protective order, the respondent 3 shall file with the

4 (1) court an original receipt showing that all firearms and ammunition 5 have been surrendered to the local law enforcement agency or sold to a firearms 6 dealer; and

7 (2) local law enforcement agency that served the protective order a 8 copy of the receipt under (1) of this subsection.

9 (c) Any firearms or ammunition surrendered to a law enforcement agency 10 under this section shall be retained by the law enforcement agency until the expiration 11 of the gun violence protective order. When the protective order expires, the law 12 enforcement agency shall return the firearms or ammunition to the respondent.

13 (d) A respondent who has surrendered firearms or ammunition to a law 14 enforcement agency and does not want the firearms or ammunition returned may sell 15 or transfer title of the firearms or ammunition to a firearms dealer.

16 (e) A person other than the respondent who claims title to any firearms or 17 ammunition surrendered under a protective order issued under AS 18.65.815 - 18 18.65.825 may petition the court to have the firearms or ammunition returned to the 19 person.

20 Sec. 18.65.835. Service of process; forms for petitions and orders; fees; 21 warnings; notification; and pending civil or criminal actions. (a) Service of 22 process of an order issued by the court under AS 18.65.815 - 18.65.825 shall be as 23 provided in AS 18.66.160 for service of process of domestic violence protective 24 orders.

25 (b) The Alaska Court System shall prepare forms for petitions and protective 26 orders and instructions for their use by a person seeking a protective order under 27 AS 18.65.815 - 18.65.825. The forms must conform to the Alaska Rules of Civil 28 Procedure, except that information on the forms may be filled in by legible
29 handwriting. Filing fees may not be charged in any action seeking only the relief 30 provided in AS 18.65.815 - 18.65.845. Each protective order form must contain the 31 following statements in boldface type:

1 (1) "Violation of this order may be a misdemeanor, punishable by up 2 to one year of incarceration and a fine of up to $10,000"; and

3 (2) "To the restrained person: this order will last until the date and time
4 noted above. You are required to surrender all firearms and ammunition that you own 5 or possess in accordance with AS 18.65.835, and you may not have in your custody or 6 control, own, purchase, possess, receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, a firearm 7 or ammunition while this order is in effect. You may seek the advice of an attorney as 8 to any matter connected with the order. The attorney should be consulted promptly so 9 that the attorney may assist you in any matter connected with the order."

10 (c) In addition to other information required, a petition for a protective order 11 must include a statement of pending civil and criminal actions involving either the 12 petitioner or the respondent, if known. While a protective order is in effect or a 13 petition for a protective order is pending, both the petitioner and respondent have a 14 continuing duty to inform the court of pending civil and criminal actions involving 15 either the petitioner or the respondent, if known.

16 Sec. 18.65.840. Notification of law enforcement agencies. When a court 17 issues or accepts for filing a protective order under AS 18.65.815 - 18.65.825, the 18 court shall send a copy of the order to the appropriate local law enforcement agency.
19 Each law enforcement agency shall establish procedures to inform peace officers of 20 protective orders. Peace officers shall use every reasonable means to enforce a 21 protective order issued or filed under AS 18.65.815 - 18.65.825.

22 Sec. 18.65.843. Health care providers; duty to report serious threats of 23 gun violence. Annually, a health care provider shall report to the Department of 24 Health and Social Services any serious threat conveyed to the health care provider
25 during the year of gun violence against a reasonably identifiable victim. The health 26 care provider may not include any personally identifiable information in the report and 27 shall make the report on or before December 31 of each year. The Department of
