FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2018 LEGISLATIVE SESSIONAnalysis

This legislation proposes to allow Alaskan voters to take and share "ballot selfies" - the photos that people take of themselves or their ballots in the voting booth. Under existing Alaska Statute, it is unlawful for a voter to display a marked ballot.

This change has no impact on the financial costs associated with the division's conduct of state and federal elections. No additional staff will be required to implement the proposed law.
